

Who are the North Hills Genealogists?

The North Hills Genealogists are a group of people interested in genealogy and in researching their family histories. Located in the North Hills of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where many of our members live, we have a common interest in learning how to efficiently research our family histories through sharing knowledge, tips and tricks.

Meeting Our Mission Goals

We hold free monthly meetings which feature a guest speaker on a relevant genealogical topic or a roundtable discussion instead of a lecture, giving attendees the chance to ask questions or share a great find. A “freebie” table of interesting genealogical literature or announcements is also available.

We publish a monthly newsletter (except for December & July), which is indexed in PERSI. It includes articles to help you find resources, tips on how to do better genealogy, announcements of upcoming genealogical events, and member and non-member queries.

We arrange field trips to local repositories and archives along with historical places. We also regularly make donations of new materials which are of interest to genealogists to Northland Library.

Special Interest Groups (SIGs)

We have organized several SIGs focused on the British Isles, Eastern Europe, Writing Your Genealogy, Pennsylvania and Genetic Genealogy DNA. These groups meet separately from the regular monthly meetings. For more details on these groups, see the Special Interest Groups page on our website.

Preserving North Hills History

We preserve history with projects such as compiling and publishing cemetery records. NHG has published three books: Pioneer Cemeteries of Hampton Township, Allegheny County, PA (200 pp, 1997 – out of print); Pioneer Cemeteries of Pine and Richland Townships, Allegheny County, PA (496 pp, 2003); and Pioneer Cemeteries of Franklin Park Borough and Marshall Township (368 pp, 2007). The everyname indexes from the three books are available on our website as well as information about how to order the books.

Meetings are Open to All

We meet the third Monday of every month, except December, starting at 7:00 PM at the Kearns Spirituality Center, on the campus of the Sisters of Divine Providence, 9000 Babcock Boulevard, Allison Park, PA 15101. “Tip Time” at 6:45 PM is an expert-led time to ask questions among all attendees. All meetings are free and open to the public.

Membership

Membership is only $15 per year (August through the following July) which includes the monthly newsletter and up to two people at the same address.
